The Flat-coated Retriever Society of Canada held Working Certificate Tests on July 21 and 22 as part of the 2012 Specialty in Abbotsford, B.C. These tests were open to all eligible breeds.

The initial catalogue posted on the web page, shows the entries prior to the first series of tests. Many dogs and handlers passed their stake the first day and were able to move up the next day to the next stake. Other handlers and dogs passed on the first day and chose to head home rather than run the next day. These factors altered the running order originally shown for the second day.

Over the two days, 47 dogs ran the WC, 32 dogs ran the WCI and 26 dogs ran the WCX with 29 WC titles, 18 WCI titles and 15 WCX titles being earned.

The two days were enjoyed by all. The judges were wonderfully patient and helpful, the grounds were in excellent shape and even the weather co-operated. While it is rewarding to earn a title, it is safe to say that the Scurry was no doubt the highlight of the two days.

The following Flat-coats were awarded titles:
